CLARKSBURG, W. VA., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1910.

REVOLUTION BREAKS OUT IN CITY OF LISBON

ARMY AND NAVY DESERT KING AND THE MONARCHY

Desperate Fighting is Said to Have Been Engaged in Streets.

KING TAKES REFUGE
Republic is Soon to Be Proclaimed by the Revolutionists.

LISBON, Oct. 5.—At 8 o'clock this morning troops faithful to the government who had been assembled in the Palace Dompredo, made common cause with the revolutionists and returned to their barracks. The multitude in the streets applauded their desertion crying, "Long live the Republic."

PISA, Italy, Oct. 5.—The Portuguese legation here while in receipt of no official advices understands that the faithful troops of the royal palace up to 3 o'clock this morning succeeded in repulsing the Republicans. The legation announces that it is practically certain Lisbon and Porto are in the hands of the revolutionists, but adds, "that it should not be concluded that the entire realm has fallen." It says the first outbreak occurred Monday.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—A communication issued today says:

"It is confirmed that an important revolution has broken out at Lisbon, that a bombardment of the city has commenced and that Tuesday night King Manuel was still in the royal palace, resisting the revolutionists. Portugal since yesterday has been isolated from the rest of the world. The reports of a revolution come by a circuitous route. All the Portuguese navy and part of the army are reported to have deserted the monarchy and cast their lot with the revolutionists.

Portuguese warships shelled the royal palace while land forces after desperate fighting in the streets dragged down the royal standard and raised the banner of a republic. First reports stated that King Manuel was a prisoner in the palace. Later news received said he boarded a Brazilian warship and another report was he had taken refuge on an English warship.

Though a revolution be peaceful or violent it was not expected. It is generally believed that the immediate cause was the assassination in the capitol of Prof. Bombarda. Republican deputy and chief of the Liberal League, by a lieutenant of the army.

It was stated at the Brazilian legation here today that King Manuel had taken refuge on the Brazilian battleship, Sao Paulo.

So intense is the feeling against the throne that this incident, comparatively trivial in itself, was sufficient to start an outbreak. Portugal following the example of Spain, has been imbued in recent years with strong anti-clerical sentiment, and the government program included a revision of the statutes of religious orders. This action against clericals also complicated the situation.

The unrest was further aggravated by a serious strike among cork cutters and coopers.

Evidences of the activity of those who aimed at the throne were found frequently of late. September 20 the police raided a bomb factory and arrested ten persons. This action is said to have followed the discovery of a wide-spread anti-monarchical plot with ramifications throughout the kingdom.

It is known that the greater part of the army and navy is Republican. It is assumed that telegraph and cable stations in Portugal are in the possession of the revolutionists and that messages will not be sent out until they are prepared to announce to the world that a republic has been proclaimed.

President-elect Fonseca, of Brazil, recently arrived at Lisbon and last night a grand banquet was given him by King Manuel.

MOTORMAN SOUGHT BY POLICE FORCE

Is Said to Have Run Wild Despite Orders He Had to Stop.

STANTON, Ill., Oct. 5.—With an inquest over the bodies of the Illinois traction wreck victims at Carlinville under the direction of Coroner Karnes, of Macoupin county, and a preliminary investigation by railroad and warehouse commissioners here today, the responsibility for the disaster which snuffed out the lives of thirty-six passengers and injured thirty-one others at Dickerson curve near here yesterday, may be fixed.

The police are searching for motorman John Liermann, who it is said ran wild, despite orders to meet the other car at Walla. He is said to have leaped from the car just before the crash, and disappeared.

Two Brothers In Long Walk to Pacific Coast

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

August and Bernard Anderson, brothers, are on their way to San Francisco afloat, hoping to beat Edward Payson Weston's time and also to eclipse the record established by the Italian team, which left several days before the Andersons. The two brothers have done some notable walking before. They tramped from Buenos Aires to Rio Janeiro on one trip and from Buenos Aires to Valparaiso on another trip. Both came to the United States about two years ago and have been planning to make the transcontinental journey for some months. Before leaving New York the brothers called at the city hall and were given a letter from Acting Mayor John Purroy Mitchell, which, they say, will be delivered to Mayor McCarthy in San Francisco in record time. August Anderson is thirty-three years of age, and Bernard is twenty-eight.

HALF DOZEN

Indictments Are Returned by Federal Grand Jury But Work Not Finished.

Six indictments were returned Wednesday afternoon by the federal court grand jury but that body has not yet finished its labors as fifty-three cases have to be investigated altogether.

By direction of Judge Dayton, a petit jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Mike K. Butts, of Berkeley county, charged with an internal revenue violation, it appearing from the evidence that he was the wrong man.

The civil docket was called at the opening of the morning session and orders of continuance were entered in several cases. No jury trials or civil cases are listed for the present term.

Several old chancery cases that had been continued from term to term for several years were dismissed for want of prosecution.

Five foreigners were naturalized, namely, Thomas Rogers Lyon, a native of Ireland; and Rocco Bell Oso, Domino Maria Packy, Frank Galotta and Nicola Stiese, natives of Italy.

RESUMES DUTIES.

Miss Etta Collins, employee of the Consolidated Telephone company, who has been ill at her home at Enterprise has recovered and has resumed the duties of her position.

THE REV. JAMES E. BIRD.

Retained as pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church here and entering upon his fourth year as such.

Clarkburg residents generally are highly pleased with the action of the Methodist Episcopal Conference of West Virginia recently in annual meeting here in re-appointing the Rev. James E. Bird pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church here. The congregation in particular is highly gratified and the retention of Mr. Bird is a recognition of his work. Being a leading minister of the denomination, it is but mete that he should have one of the leading churches.

A brief statistical report shows that the Rev. Mr. Bird has done not only faithful service but also a vast amount of work. His pastoral labors here the three years he has been with the Clarkburg church include 99 baptisms, 123 funerals, 224 marriages and 2,978 visits, and he has received 203 persons into membership of the church.

Thoroughly familiar with the field and in close touch with the people, the Rev. Mr. Bird is better prepared to achieve a great work this year than a new pastor could possibly do, and the conference did the correct thing to keep him here.

Mr. Morris was 63 years of age, and leaves his wife and six children to mourn his loss. One son, Albert, died several years ago. The other children are as follows: Amos, who is married and has a family living on Grass Run; David M. Morris, married, living in this city; Mrs. John Smith, of Tennille; Mrs. George Nuzum, of Grass Run; Mrs. Guy Furber, of Grass Run; Mrs. Ethel Bond, of Tennille, and Luther, living at the home on Grass Run.

Mr. Morris was a well known farmer, and was also actively engaged in business for a number of years. During that time he made many friends, and besides being very successful in business, was a highly respected and useful citizen of the county. His death comes as a deep shock and a great loss to the community and neighborhood, as well as to the county at large.

Among the recent bookings of importance made by the management of the Grand opera house are "The Lottery Man," "The Traveling Salesman," and the New York Astor theater production of "Seven Days." Donald McDonald, the theatrical manager of LaCrosse, Wis., who staged a highly successful production of "The Geisha," two years ago at the Grand opera house for the Marcato Club, will arrive in the city Thursday night for the purpose of rehearsing and staging a similar dramatic performance.

The play to be staged this time is a beautiful musical comedy entitled "The Talk of the Town," and it will be presented the night of Friday, October 21 at the Grand opera house under the auspices of the Marcato Club. The time is short in which to prepare for the production, but this was the only time within the near future that the Club could engage Prof. McDonald. Italian Photographer Declares Plot is Hatched to Take His Life.

OVERHEARD IN A SHOP

Men Are Jealous, He Declares, Because He Has Been Successful.

D. Pace, a professional photographer and native of Italy, who conducts a studio at 302 North Fourth street, declares that he has been threatened with death by Black Hand letters and he has taken precautions to protect himself from any murderous attack. If it becomes necessary he says he will resort to the courts of law for further protection.

The nature of the threat is explained by Mr. Pace in the following communication written by him for the Telegram:

Clarkburg Telegram.—Sir:—With these few lines, would like to ask you to publish the following article in your paper. A Black Hand plot, threatening to kill me, an intimate friend of mine heard the culprit in a local barber shop, making remarks of their intention to take my life. To be on a lookout for safety, I ask you again to kindly bring this to the public.

One of the gang is employed in a local glass factory. He expressed himself that he would kill me, but the master of the gang should have said not to do so, just to stay in the face with a razor. The man is from Italy, the Calabrian mountains, which is known as a very tough region. He belongs to the same country from where they sent some three people last year in West Virginia.

All I can account for, these people have a personal grudge against me, because they are crazy jealous, as I am making a good living in Clarkburg. They don't like me because I am a gentleman, and always have been against a low class of characters, and have never associated with them. I state who I am will prove to the public.

I am a citizen of America, native from Italy, Naples city. I have a diploma of art of science of photography in my possession; also my father is one of the high grade artists with studio in Italy. He was a ready soldier under Dictator Joseph Parnelli and in 1860 fought for the Italian independence.

Expecting to see this warning for my protection in your paper and oblige.

Very respectfully,
D. PACE

RALLIES ARE LARGE IN COUNTY OF LEWIS

Citizens Turn Out in Great Numbers to Hear Carrigan and Other Speakers.

WESTON, Oct. 5.—The meetings in Lewis county addressed by Charles E. Carrigan, Republican nominee for Congress, Birk S. Stathers, nominee for state senate, and A. C. Hughes, nominee for the House of Delegates, have from the first been pleasing surprises even to the candidates and party workers.

A farmers' institute has just been adjourned at Lightburn and the initial meeting was for that reason not largely attended, but at Freemansburg, Vadis and Alum Bridge, the Republican strongholds in rural Freeman's Creek district, old time crowds were present and all the speakers were greeted with an enthusiasm which tells of another Republican triumph in this county.

At some of last week's Democratic meetings addressed by Candidate Davis, only eight or a dozen persons gathered and local Democrats who have observed the big Carrigan demonstrations are much disappointed.

George W. Bland, Democratic nominee for the state senate in this district, came here for a series of meetings with the local legislative candidate, but after one meeting, which the Democratic chairman had billed near a Republican meeting as a counter attraction, Bland was pulled off and sent home to West Union to await a hoped-for abatement of the Stathers enthusiasm in his home county before returning. Today the Republican speakers are in Court House district, tomorrow they go to Collins' Settlement and will complete a circuit of the county with meetings in Skin Creek and Hackers' Creek districts Friday and Saturday nights. Their last meeting will be at Jane Lew Saturday night.

WRONGLY ACCUSED

Mr. Robinson Did Not Furnish Information to Newspapers.

Festus E. Robinson, of Wallace, sends the following statement for publication:

A few days ago an article was published in the Telegram, relating to Registrar A. S. Robey of precinct No. 4 in Sardis district not doing his duty. The same day this was published, I was in Clarkburg; and, of course, I was accused of having the article published. As you no doubt know, I did not have it published, kindly make a statement in the Telegram to that effect. Nor did I furnish any information to any correspondent or publish.

Mr. and Mrs. Ermine Shurman, of Grovers Gap, who were guests of T. J. Parris a week, returned home today.
